

Questions to Make Non-Christians Hungry

If you could know God in a personal way, would you want to?

Do you ever think about spiritual things?

How do you decide what is true?

What gives you purpose in life?

What do you think motivates people today?

What is your view of Jesus Christ? What was his role in history?

Are you content with your life? Why or why not?

How do you handle stress and frustration?

What brings you complete fulfillment?

How will people remember you?

Do you like yourself?

What is the use of trying to excel at your studies when you won't even exist after a few fleeting years on this planet? Why try to excel at anything anyway? What's the point?

What implications does the resurrection have on the claims Christ made about Himself?

Where did everything (the universe) come from and what's going to happen to all matter eventually?

Do you think right and wrong are absolute? Why or why not?

Are you aware of the blessings that God wants to give you?

For what purpose are we here?

What are your impressions of Jesus Christ?

What does Islam say about Jesus?

Who do you think Jesus is?

What do you think is necessary to become a follower of Jesus Christ?

What is the most significant thing you've done in your life?

What is your relationship to Christ-skeptic, admirer, follower, indifferent? Why?

What happens when you die?

What do you think a Christian is? or what characterizes a Christian?

What does "religion" mean to you?

Who is Jesus to you and what was His life like?

What is your main goal in life?

Do you believe in heaven and hell? Why do people go there?

What is sin? Why doesn't God like it?

If died tonight and stood before God and He asked, "Why should I let you into My heaven?" What would you say?

What do you think the main message of the Bible is?

Why would God come to earth?

Why would God die for us?

Do you ever feel guilty? What do you do with your guilt?

What can I pray for you about?

Questions to Make Christians Hungry

When was the last time you did something and felt as though God was in it?

What is the neatest thing the Lord has shown you lately?

Are you satisfied with the progress you've made since becoming a Christian?

What are you believing God for these days?

What is your life objective?

How would you tell another person how to become a Christian?

College equips us on how to make a living, what are you doing to equip yourself on how to live a meaningful life?

Would you like to have a part in God's plan to reach the world for Christ?

How has God used you to help others since you became a Christian?

What would you do if someone in your classes acted interested in knowing about Christ or growing as a Christian?

Who is helping you to grow in your daily walk with Christ?

What did you learn in your Bible study/reading this week?

What do you hope to accomplish during your lifetime?

Do you find it easy to apply the Scripture that you've memorized?

How does the Holy Spirit work in your life?

What book of the Bible are you reading now?

What is the most significant thing that you have learned since becoming a Christian?

How do you see your major fitting in with God's plan for the world?

What word would you use to describe your prayer life?

How many other Christians really know how you are doing spiritually?

What is God's calling for you right now?

How do you think Jesus would handle this type of situation?

What are your three favorite verses?

Are you satisfied with your life?

What do you think Jesus wants from you?